

BJP HIGHLIGHTS

Our pick of books and exhibitions this November

Written by British Journal of Photography
Published on 1 November 2019

From the project Snow, exhibited in Homelands: Art from Bangladesh, India and Pakistan at Kettle's Yard, Cambridge © Sohrab Hura.

Homelands: Art from Bangladesh, India and Pakistan

Opening at Kettle's Yard, Cambridge, on 12 November 2019, Homelands: Art from Bangladesh, India and Pakistan features work by 11 contemporary artists that engage with displacement and the transitory notion of home — both pivotal factors for the modern construction of Bangladesh, India and Pakistan. Responding to the present climate of increasing nationalism, the exhibiting artists will engage with both intimate and political histories.

Curated by Dr Devika Singh, curator of international art at Tate Modern, Homelands will encompass painting, drawing, video, photography and installation, including 27 photographs by Sohrab Hura (one of BJP's Ones To Watch in 2011), Iftikhar Dadi and Elizabeth Dadi's neon sculptures of national flowers from their Efflorescence series, and a newly conceived performance by Nikhil Chopra, among many more.

kettlesyard.co.uk

Padma © Iftikhar Dadi and Elizabeth Dadi.